Background of the Project:

The Aspire to Innovate (a2i) Programme builds on the Government of Bangladesh's efforts to introduce a citizen-centric culture of innovation in civil service to improve service delivery and make services more inclusive, affordable, reliable, and easier to access. This project will provide support to establish institutional mechanisms and improve accountability to accelerate SDG achievements in Bangladesh.

This project will have three components:

1. Institutionalizing Public Service Innovation and Improving Accountability
2. Catalyzing Digital Financial Services and Fintech Innovations
3. Incubating Private Sector-enabled Public Service Innovation

Background of the assignment:

In line with the above objectives, over the years, a2i has developed digital solutions to accelerate and strengthen protocols of public services and created many digital platforms to cater to the needs of citizens in a rapidly evolving development context. It is believed that these efforts would support the government in instilling innovation and building up the necessary institutional mechanisms so that efforts already made would be incentivized and scaled up to bring sustainable impact.

To determine the extent of the digitally assisted interventions and whether these interventions have been able to fulfil these expectations and stated results described in the Project Document, and also to what extent lessons learned have been incorporated for further refinement of the project interventions, detailed evaluation needs to be undertaken.
